Great! I am going back to N Texas now, after wreaking havok(?) on Youngstown yet again and Braxton.

Then the clean-up discussed in our meeting yesterday? Followed by updating the figures..at least with placeholders if not final.

Importance: High

I did few more tweaks on the Ohio (appendix) language for consistency. I am till working on West Virginia.

Susie, I put the well data in three separate really shot tables. If you like it, we could do the same at DFW.

Hopefully everyone is now safely home!
